The cottage is the ideal base for your stay in Daylesford where there are so many places to visit and attractions to be enjoyed.

Daisy Hill Cottage is fully self-contained, offering a cracking log fire, complemented by gas heating for cosy nights. The makings of a light breakfast are provided for the first morning of your stay.

Accommodation for up to four people is provided in one double and one twin bedroom. All beds have cosy doonas and electric blankets and all linen and towels are provided.

The cosy front sitting room features an open fireplace for warm winter evenings. A supplementary gas space heater in the adjacent reading room complements the fire's warmth and extends its comfort to the large, nearby kitchen. Colour television magazines and books are provided for your enjoyment.

The fully equipped kitchen features a four burner electric oven and also a microwave oven. There are sufficient utensils to provide a light snack or gourmet dinner.

The bathroom has a shower and full-size bath. Hand washing and ironing facilities are provided.

Lake Daylesford is close by with its tranquil water and shady trees. Picnic on its banks and enjoy a meal at the Boathouse Café, or feed the ducks and swans. Browse at the Book Barn or enjoy bushwalking tracks around the lake shoreline.

For art lovers, the Convent Gallery and Restaurant is a favourite eating spot.

Make time for a relaxing spa and massage at the Hepburn Springs Spa Complex. Don't forget to fill bottles at one of the many local mineral springs to take home with you.

Garden lovers will enjoy the Botanic Gardens atop Wombat Hill, overlooking the town, where it is possible to drive around and view the scenery without leaving your car.

The picturesque 18 hole Hepburn Springs Golf Course is but one of the many local sporting venues that include tennis, fishing, canoeing and swimming.
